

Online Event Inventory Management Solution

BRING ALL OF YOUR EVENT TOOLS TOGETHER!

AND KEEP YOURSELF ORGANIZED!

Imagine

you have an assistant that...

- is dedicated to making your event planning seem easy
- is on call 24 hours a day, 7 days a week and never calls in sick
- stores all your valuable information just a few keystrokes away

We not only imagined your assistant, we created one for you! With our online event inventory management tool, you'll feel like you've hired another employee. Instead, you have added a powerful tool that brings all of your event coordination to your fingertips, no matter where you are or what time of day.

A program with you in mind.

With online access to your trade show property inventory, you will realize a boost in productivity and efficiency. Stop rummaging through old files to find out what your graphics say. Forget trying to re-educate yourself or a new staff member every season about what is available. Coordinate your efforts, consolidate energy and get what you need anywhere, anytime with unlimited users in a secure environment.

How it all works.

You will find Renze's Online Inventory Management an intuitive, easy-to-use tool that you are glad to have in your toolbox.

With a simple, secure login, you will be directed to your unique site. Manage a variety of tasks right from the main menu. Navigate smoothly from task to task with drop down menus and links to your tradeshow information. Enter a new event by completing the pre-set online forms that walk you through all the details Renze will need to ship your desired display. Review upcoming events by viewing your calendar or search for a show by examining your history.

Enter budget information by show and input the actual numbers at the end of the show to help you prepare for next year's budget planning process. Schedule your booth staff and e-mail important event information they rely on in order to have a successful show. Print a quick view of your inventory and download misplaced set up instructions. It is all right at your fingertips.

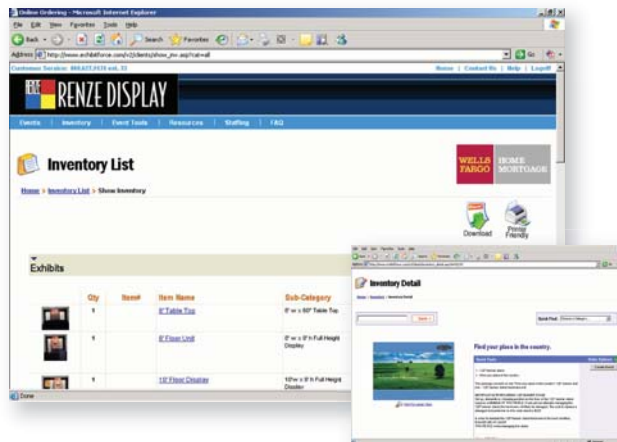

Everything for the show, in one place, and available 24/7!

Turnkey Service - The Key to Success.

Every trade show represents a tremendous investment -- from space reservations to travel, exhibit properties to giveaways. You have too much invested to rely on a binder with notes and the memory of a handful of staffers. Put your inventory online and let Renze Display help you enable anyone who has a stake in making the show a success more efficient, with less time and effort.

Call your Renze Display representative today to schedule a demonstration.

Problem  "I'm usually on the road at a show but I need to get ready for future events. I need to order a booth, locate what I have in our inventory and then communicate the details of when and where I want the properties shipped."

Event & Exhibit Managers

Solution  Details of your booth property and information on where they are and what shows are next, as well as visual confirmation of everything in stock is right at your fingertips

Problem  "I need to organize next year's tradeshow schedule and begin preparing budgets based on previous events. With over one hundred shows to review, the amount of paperwork and files is overwhelming."

Marketing Coordinator

Solution  Renze Display allows quick access to your entire exhibit history including budgets, show dates and venues, as well as what properties were used. Use the budgeting worksheet to keep track of your expenses and then download it into Excel to easily incorporate it into the rest of your spreadsheets.

Problem  "Our event coordinator was just transferred to another department. We have three trade shows scheduled for next month and no one knows which graphics or collateral are available!"

General Manager

Solution  With Renze Display tracking and maintaining your inventory, you know what you have, where it is going and when it should arrive.
